RAMAPO KENNEL CLUB GROWL

RAMAPO KENNEL CLUB April 13, 2005 General Meeting Minutes

The meeting was called to order at 8:55 p.m. by President, Joanne Silver.

Members and Guests were asked to sign the Roll Call sheet on the back table.

Joanne Silver gave the Treasurer's report for Jackie Makoujy. The reported balance in the Money Market account is $20,114.16 and the checking account balance is $27,046.69. Jackie will be transferring some of the funds in the checking account into the money market account shortly as all the receipts from the Point Show are final.

Also, the monies collected from the Bingo Night for the victims of the Tsunami will be disbursed to the American Red Cross. The Club raised $300.00 which it will match for a total donation of $600.00.

Also, all applicable refunds for obedience and show handling classes have been sent.

Corresponding Secretary: Shirley Irwin received a thank you note from the Neapolitan Mastiff Club Rescue for the $100.00 which was returned to them for the "booth space" they paid for at our Point Show.

Also received was a thank you from the (Bill) Delaney Medical Fund for our donation on behalf of the Club.

Recording Secretary: Pat Paladino advised the minutes were prepared by Joanne Silver and published in the GROWL. Minutes approved as published: Joyce Wilson/Jack Berlet.

Refreshments for the next meeting will be graciously supplied by Stephanie Whitey, Joanne Silver and Gail Yingling. THANK YOU!

Sunshine: Lorraine Fennemore advised everyone that member April Rothwell is back in Chilton Memorial Hospital for problems with her leg.

The June Awards Dinner will be held at Ruppert's Restaurant, the site of our Holiday Party. Gail Yingling reported that the menu will be published in the GROWL and any feedback about menu choices can be directed to her.

Paid Members and Life Members are free and the cost to Guests will be $25.00 (to cover the meal, tax and tip.)

Elaine Barone will also be accepting donations of pet items at the Awards Dinner which she will distribute where needed.

RAMAPO KENNEL CLUB GROWL

Jack Berlet thanked Jeff Ball for all his help in getting the GROWL put together, published and sent.

The Match Show will be held this year on Saturday, June 18, 2005 at the Paramus Veterans Home. Flyers are available on the back table for distribution and Rare Breeds will be included.

Also, all the equipment stored at the VFW in Little Falls, tables, gates, mats, etc. needs to be picked up. Due to a recent newspaper article, it is apparent that the hall will not be ready anytime soon to resume our obedience/show handling classes.

If anyone should know or become aware of a place where these classes can be held, and will accommodate us, please let a Club Officer know.

Point Show: Elaine Barone circulated a form for people interested in sponsoring either the Group Trophy or Rosettes. Individual breed trophy forms will be available at our next meeting and will also be published in the GROWL.

Any Vendors interested in attending our shows can contact Janis Hayes or Elaine Barone for details.

Advertising is being handled by Jeff Ball and those forms will be available at our next meeting and will also be published in the GROWL and available on line.

Joanne Silver has located some additional Puppy Development books by Pat Hastings. They are available for sale at a cost of $11.00. If you are interested please see Joanne.

The Nominating Committee has offered the following slate of officers for our Club election in May, 2005. It should also be noted that there were NO additional nominations from the floor.

President	Jack Berlet
Vice President	Ruth Henningsen
Corresponding Secretary	Shirley Irwin
Recording Secretary	Pat Paladino
Treasurer	Jackie Makoujy
Board	Jeffrey Ball and Dee Bracken

Jack Berlet also advised the Membership of a puppy buying scam that is going on. Breeders are asked particulars about purchasing a puppy, mostly for 2 or 3 times the asking price, then reimbursement for the shipping of the puppy (which is never picked up) all with an International Money Order that is eventually returned to the breeder unpaid.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Pat Paladino
Recording Secretary

- d. Are you able to provide suitable clothing with many pockets?
- e. Do you have anything that can be groomed (often shag carpeting, stuffed animals or other family members) that can calm eager hands?
- f. Are you able to listen for hours on end, patiently, and supportively?
- g. Do you have thousands of extra dollars needed to properly support a dog show H. O. R.?

If you've answered "yes!" to these questions, you may be dog show H.O.R. material!

Adopting a dog show H.O.R. can be a very rewarding experience. They are usually so willing to please, and often are happy with only an occasional class ribbon to play with. They can pick up droppings, are willing to help groom and show your own animals, and already know directions to every fairground and showground in the lower 48 states. They can have vast amounts of knowledge and wisdom that they are willing to impart to anyone who has the patience to listen for hours.... and hours.... and hours. While some may need a bit of resocializing, better nutrition and regular exercise, most adjust very well to their new dog show families when given appropriate time, reconditioning, patience and access to liver.

We also get a few breeder/handler/owner rescues (B. H. O. R. s) from time to time. Dog show B.H.O.R.s are often more difficult to place as they are usually alphas and may have a harder time getting along with existing dog show breeders. They tend to be less submissive, and often will try to control the household and existing breeder's program if strong boundaries are not set. There is hope for B.H.O.R.s, though. For those with the experience, extra patience and a strong hand, even dog show B.H.O.R.s can find new and useful lives.

So, if you're interested in fostering or adopting either a dog show H.O.R. or B.H.O.R., please contact us. If you are not able to foster or adopt at this time, if you know of a dog show H.O.R. or B.H.O.R. in need of rehoming, or would just like to make a much needed donation, please give us a call at 800-555-HORS! You can also visit one of our Dog Show B.H.O.R.s and H.O.R.s booths located at most major dog shows.

New Dog Show Handler/Owner Rescue Assoc. Opens to the Community

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (ARP)-- Looking for someone special to help around the kennel or on dog show trips? Would you like that special companion, who understands, to share your home and life? Why not consider adopting a rescued handler/owner!

The Dog Show Handler/Owner Rescue Association is currently screening families who might be interested in adopting or fostering a handler/owner rescue (or H.O.R.s for short). While there are a great many canine breed rescue organizations in our communities, there has been nothing (until now) to help the displaced, neglected or abandoned handler/owner. The need is greater than ever and the Dog Show H.O.R. Assoc. needs your help to address this growing problem.

Who are the H.O.R.s that need help? Well, we see them every day. Some are lost or abandoned, then picked up in parks attempting to stalk squirrels. Others are turned in by parents or spouses who didn't realize how much time, care and responsibility it takes to keep these special H.O.R.s. Often, these H.O.R.s are turned in with their own dogs. A number of H.O.R.s come to us because of bad knees and their families have decided they have outlived their usefulness. Many require medical attention due to years of caring for their dogs, yet neglecting their own diet, exercise and medical care.

Your probably asking yourself right now, "How can I help?" We've prepared some questions to help you decide if you might be a suitable dog show H.O.R. family:

- a. Do you have a fenced yard?
- b. Do you mind the smell of liver in the house?
- c. Do you have a spare RV or Camper?
