VIEW FROM THE OTHER END OF THE LEASH

An envious observer recently commented that she wanted to come back as a dog in my house...envisioning long naps on the couch, specially cooked meals, unlimited swimming in the lake, running free in the woods, someone to spruce up my appearance, and no income tax...

Let me set the record straight...

Sunday: obedience match...we decided to use the time and beginner course for advanced rally prep...we followed the signs off-leash without a hitch...my handler got a little sloppy on the figure 8, bumping one of the posts...but we aced the stay and walk the ring perimeter...I got a peanut butter biscuit for that one!...

Monday: rally class...lots of footwork practice...you'd think it would be harder for me with four feet, but my handler had trouble with new instructions for U-turns...she kept using the old style T-turn...you can teach a dog new tricks, but the handlers aren't so easy...

Tuesday: pet therapy visit at the hospital...I always enjoy these visits...I get lots of hugs, scratches and smooches...sometimes people cry and that's OK too, they need an outlet for their fears...one cute girl asked me to put my paws on the bed and she scratched my ears...(I LOVE THAT)...

Wednesday: pet therapy visit at senior residence...this was a new site for us...we did a demo of obedience skills and then meet-and-greet in various social rooms...just enough time for a short nap before RKC classes tonight...I'm guaranteed a peanut butter filled Kong in my crate before I have to work...

Thursday: rally run-throughs...fun stuff, but I'd rather chew the toys scattered around the floor...

Friday: grooming...OK, so I'm 13 shades of chocolate while I'm shedding...it's all low cal...

Saturday: rally and obedience trials...pouring rain with puddles and mud...LOTS of mud...I don't like rain...I'll swim forever, but I don't go out in rain...whose idea was a course with lots of sits in the mud?...NOT MINE!...NQed the RA course and qualified placing third in BN after a miserable run... back to the classroom...

Sun: match...WOW did we learn a lot!...great runs with my tail flying high...I could do no wrong!...

Tomorrow it all starts again with rally class... It's a dog's life...a real dog's life...

President's Message

Jeffrey David Ball

Just a reminder that May is the month which our club holds Officer and Board member elections. No guests are permitted and there will not be a program. We will have plenty to talk about during the meeting. Besides the elections, we need to discuss at length our Match Show which is next month. We also want to talk about the past year, as well as where and what our club will be doing over the next year.

We will also be looking for volunteers, from committee chairpersons to committee members to assist. So please volunteer in some manner, be an Officer, a Board member, committee chair, or a committee member. You may still run for an Officer or Board position if you are nominated from the floor in May.

Hopefully everyone sent in their achievements for the 2011 RKC Awards Dinner. That is schedule for Wednesday, June 8, 2011 at Rupperts in Riverdale, New Jersey. There is no charge for members and minimum charge for guest. If you have not already signed up to attend, please contact Lorraine Fennemore immediately. It's a great time and a great way to lead into summer. Remember, we do not have another meeting until September after the June Awards Dinner.

If you have not already heard, AKC Meet the Breeds is NOT on our Point Show weekend in October. It will be held in November. We have not decided if we will participate as we did the first year, but we will be talking about that in the immediate future. A special thanks to the NJFDC who informed AKC that they would discourage all New Jersey Clubs from participating in Meet the Breeds in New York if it was held against a New Jersey event. The NJFDC's argument was that it hurt New Jersey events and that the AKC should abide by their rule to not have similar events within 200 miles of each other at the same time.

The NJFDC will be holding a How to Lobby workshop on Tuesday, September 13, 2011. It will be an evening event with dinner to be held at the Rutgers Labor Education Building in New Brunswick. Later in the year, they plan to hold a lobby day in Trenton. A first time event for the Federation. NJFDC will be releasing all the details at the next Delegate meeting, which is in June. If you are interested in receiving more information, or interested in attending, please let Sharon Fremer know. Sharon also has the new NJFDC Breeder and Rescue Guides. All those who took a listing in it, you may pick up your new guide from Sharon. If you are interest in purchasing one, she can also help you.

I hope to see you at the next meeting. Thank you!

Minutes

RKC Member Meeting

April 13th 2011

VFW Hall

45 Plymouth Ave, Fairfield, NJ 07004

Marcia E. Garstin gave an informative program on Prebiotics and Probiotics.

President Jeffrey Ball called the meeting to order at 9:10pm.

Recording Secretary— Joyce Wilson made a motion to accept the March 9th minutes as accepted (Jeffrey Ball had also sponsored Cindy McMillen for membership) Seconded by Sharon Fremer, voted upon and approved.

Corresponding Secretary— Ruth reported for Elaine about an advertisement postcard she had received about pottery, something that could possibly be used for gifts at point show. It was given to point show chair.

Treasurer's Report— Diane Ammerman reported the checking account has a $12,923.35 balance, the money market account was not available but had not changed since last month. The club insurance was paid as well as back training classes.

Membership dues are due, please give a completed form with correct dollar amount to Diane Ammerman. Remember if you are a lifetime member and you still want a hard copy of the Grawl and a Roster you STILL need to pay for that. Copies of the membership forms are in the Grawl.

Show Handling— There are four classes left.

Obedience Classes— New session starts April 20th.

Hospitality— Rose Radel, Sharon Fremer and Jeffrey Ball will bring refreshments to the May Meeting.

May Meeting is a members only meeting as we will be voting for officers.

June Awards Dinner is set for Wednesday June 8th. It will be held at Rupperts @ 7:00pm, members are free, guests are $25, please sign up with Lorraine if you would like to join us.

Sunshine— Lorraine reported that Priscilla Gabosh's (chief steward of RKC's Point Show) husband passed away suddenly. A sympathy card was passed around for all to sign.

Pet Therapy—Joanne Silver received an invitation from the Homestead School in Ridgewood to come and do a demonstration. The date has not yet been determined.

Meet the Breeds— Has been set for November 19-20th. Kim Luikert, Rose Radel and Jeffrey Ball all are willing to help, additional volunteers are needed. We have the booth design and equipment from two years ago.

Point Show— 99% of the judges are confirmed, still looking for judges for the four new hound breeds. Trophies for the four group placements of the seven breeds have been selected. We will be ordering color appropriate bath size towels from Ocean State Embroidery with RKC embroidered on front. Ocean State will honor the price we had from 2010. Prize for best in show is still needed. A discussion was had on whether to keep or eliminate the novice class, Diane will ask the supported entries for their input.

Match Show—The date is set for June 4th, volunteers are needed for stewards in obedience as well as a Rally judge.

AKC Report— Rose Radel reported the AKC in encouraging clubs to "get social" as in Facebook, Twitter. Ron Rella will be coordinating a breeders symposium to be held on June 4th at the University of Texas in Arlington. The 2011 ARC National Sieger Show will be held in Lancaster PA. on May 14th. A data report was put out that detailed the astounding loss of entries in the past five years. The number of events has increased while the total entries have decreased. 2005 was the first year with over 3 million entries, 52% of total entries were conformation. 2010 over 3 million entries with 42% of total entries from conformation. 2005 first year of Rally entries, 74,521. 2010 Rally entries total 30,179 loss of 44, 342 entries. It is suggested that clubs try to attract more members and attract spectators to shows from advertising. Suggestions of putting flyers in vets offices, feed stores, community bulletin boards, local newspapers, Cable TV, radio. Clubs are also encouraged to be more exhibitor friendly, keeping a look out for new people and "taking by the hand" showing new exhibitors "the ropes". Extra charges in this day and age are not good for drawing new exhibitors. If clubs are not offering Obedience and Rally to mixed breed owners they are missing the opportunity for new members and workers for events. With the prices of gas sky-rocketing the entries that have traveled to shows in the past will decline, it is important to draw in local exhibitors.

Federation Report—Sharon Fremer reported that Breeders directories are available. There was a Cardiac Specialist from Red Bank who spoke at the last Federation meeting. Within the next two months there will be a date for the "How to Lobby" seminar that will be held at Rutgers. More information to follow.

The Grawl— If you have anything that you feel should be in the Grawl please see Sharon Fremer or Tilly Grassa.

Elections— The May 11th meeting we will be voting for
